Partners, not just models

Safelight is a Bronzeville portrait studio for consenting adults. Our staff shows clients a mood board, the clients respond in front of the camera, and what we sell is the photograph of them: an intimate portrait made as a gift for a wife, a girlfriend, a husband or a partner.

Available Light is the way we shoot it: natural and practical light, close and honest, with nothing staged that the subject didn't choose.

WHAT YOU GET

- A share of the proceeds from every sample you help create, paid monthly with a simple statement.
- A veto over every frame. Anything you reject gets deleted.
- Your names are never used unless you choose to use them.

WHAT YOU BRING

- Anika: your midwifery and touch work make you a natural stylist and guide for our clients.
- Che: your eye and your presence on the other side of the lens.
- Together: the sample sessions that teach clients what's possible.

WHERE OUR CLIENTS LIVE

Hyde Park, Bronzeville, Old Town, Oak and Rush Streets, Lincoln Park and Boystown. Chicago's liberated neighborhoods.

Sex, Drugs & All That Jazz Global

Safelight lives under the house brand Sex, Drugs & All That Jazz Global (allthatjazzglobal.com). It's the grown-folks side of McGhee Consulting Group, where three things meet:

SEX

Adult beauty and intimacy, photographed with consent and taste. The portraits suggest; they don't expose.

DRUGS

Legal Illinois cannabis, consumed with intention and never as a crutch. See the next page.

ALL THAT JAZZ

Bronzeville is jazz country. Every session has a soundtrack, and records set the tempo on set.

"Slow, deliberate, and never shy."

The standard is the same across all three: grown people, clear choices, beautiful results.

Intentional consumption

If a session includes cannabis, we choose it the way a sommelier chooses a wine: by aroma, lab results and mood, not by the highest THC number.

TERPENE	AROMA	SESSION MOOD (OFTEN DESCRIBED AS)
Myrcene	Earthy, mango, musk	Heavy, melting, slow
Limonene	Citrus peel	Bright, chatty, playful: Shannon energy
Linalool	Lavender, florals	Soft, calm: Bloom energy
Caryophyllene	Black pepper, clove	Warm, grounded
Pinene	Pine, fresh herbs	Clear, alert

HOUSE RULES

- Paperwork first. Releases get signed before anything is lit.
- Read the COA (the lab's certificate of analysis), not the banner. The lab result is the proof.
- Start small. Measured in grams first, then ounces. A 0.5 g (0.018 oz) preroll is shared, not finished.
- It's optional, always. No one has to partake to take part.
- Keep a journal: strain, grower, terpenes, how it felt, and what the camera saw.

KNOW YOUR GROWER

We favor BIPOC growers, regenerative farms and Illinois craft cultivators. The flower on set should tell a story as good as the pictures.

Bloom

The tender side: petals, folds, and a tight center opening slowly. It suggests the body without showing it.

PROMPT

"Open slowly, like the petals. Start closed, end open."

LIGHT

One large, soft source placed close and falling off into black. No hard strobe.

STYLING

Blush satin, loose petals, dewy highlighter on skin, pale pink nails.

WHAT TO CAPTURE

Tight crops of hands, the curve of a hip and collarbones, all at the same macro scale as the flower.

Cherry Lacquer

Heat: sharp red nails, lacquered lips, and a wet, humid gloss on everything.

LIPS

Red lacquer, glycerin drops, and a real cherry.

NAILS

Long almond nails in cherry gloss against satin and lace.

THE PRACTICAL EFFECT

A pool of glycerin and syrup, frozen with a high-speed flash.

THE SET

Haze, a red gel light, a big softbox, and the makeup artist working on set.

"Let the nails do the talking."

As Shannon Sez

"Hi, I'm Shannon McGhee. Wanna play with me?"

Shannon is loud, funny, curvy and completely in charge. She laughs at her own jokes and runs the room; she isn't there to be looked at. It's bombshell energy played by our own people. We never use anyone's real face or name.

LOOK

Oxblood and cherry lacquer, big hair, gold jewelry, satin with lace.

ATTITUDE

A head-back laugh, a sideways look, a hand on the hip. Never passive.

SHANNON AROUND TOWN

Bronzeville	The stoop queen of a greystone, with jazz on the radio.
Hyde Park	The bohemian professor's wife: a book, a joint and a laugh.
Oak & Rush	Gold Coast glam, a martini under the valet lights.
Old Town	Comic timing on a patio at night.
Lincoln Park	Brunch, a sundress and sunglasses.
Boystown	Queen of the drag brunch.
